Traffic Court On Wheels Speeds California Cases

A traffic court on wheels is the latest innovation of a California city for disposing of traffic cases quickly. With a judge right behind the motorcycle cop, luckless speeders get a hearing within ten minutes, thus preventing the congesting of the regular courts with traffic cases. Photo shows the portable traffic court of Inglewood, Calif., in session.

PINOLE BOOSTS CARNIVAL TO BE HELD AUGUST 11

Headed by a band, a caravan of machines from Pinole came to Richmond last night to advertise the Industrial Exposition and Carnival to be held in the civic center there from August 11 to 14.

Various cities and communities throughout the county have been visited and the residents invited to attend the celebration which is expected to draw approximately 50,000 persons to Pinole next week.

One of the big features of the celebration will be the masked ball in the opera house on Saturday night. On this same night, there will be a charmarita in the U. P. E. C. hall.

Interest in the race for queen of the carnival is spreading throughout the county. Not until Thursday night when the votes are taken will the name be known of the fortunate young lady to rule over the carnival.

While the caravan was advertising the celebration last night Marian Harlan was busy securing votes for the coveted honor of queen. Other contestants are Dorothy Young and Dace Salmon of Hercules, and representatives from other communities in the county.

JURY REQUESTS KEYES TO HOLD SECRET PROBE

(By Universal Service)
By RALPH WHEELWRIGHT

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 3.—Reaching a decision tantamount to abandoning further investigation of the kidnapping of Almee Semple McPherson, the county grand jury tonight completed its deliberation of all the evidence presented and instructed District Attorney Asa Keyes to continue a secret inquiry into all phases of the case.

The announcement of the grand jury's action was made by Foreman William H. Carter, who expressed complete confidence in the district attorney and stated that a formal letter concerning the inquiry would be sent to him tomorrow morning.

Carter's statement follows: After considering all of the evidence presented by district attorney and his assistant, Ryan, the grand jurors by a unanimous vote decided that because of many contradictions in the evidence it will not be possible to make any definite decision concerning the kidnapping or disappearance of Almee Semple McPherson.

We have written a letter to Keyes concerning our findings and recommending that he conduct a secret and efficient inquiry into any of the angles of the case that he considers are vital.

Wherever there is a possibility of a crime having been committed we feel that it is a duty of the district attorney to make such inquiry as he finds necessary and we expect at all times that the district attorney's office will do its duty.

GREET WOMAN WHO TRIED TO SWIM CHANNEL

(By Universal Service)
By WILLIAM HILLMAN

LONDON, Aug. 3.—Clarabelle Barrett is hailed by the British press today as the greatest of all women swimmers although she failed in her attempt to swim the British Channel after being in the water for 21 hours and 45 minutes.

Clarabelle's effort was the best effort ever made by a woman. Her friends are certain she will try again. It is believed she would have succeeded if it had not been for the thick fog which compelled her to zig zag until she was two miles from Cape Griz Nez.

During the night the American girl swam on in spite of the severe stings of jelly fish. Once she was compelled to cry out when she was nearly run down by a channel boat.

During the swim she took nourishment frequently from the ten bananas and oranges sent her by Miss Grace Leicester, a nurse from Baltimore.

When she became exhausted and was hauled into the motor boat, Clarabelle broke down and wept. Through her tears she sobbed: "I am sorry I failed."

Miss Barrett was given a great ovation on her return to Dover today.

Miss Barrett gave up her attempt at 5:25 this morning. She reached Dover at 8 o'clock. It is estimated she swam forty miles while she was in the water or nearly twice the distance across the channel.

Plea Is Made To End Mexican Church Quarrel

BISHOP MEETS WITH OFFICIALS ON PEACE PLEA

Settlement Terms Between Church and State To Be Laid Before Calles

(By Universal Service)
MEXICO CITY, Aug. 3.—Strong pressure is being brought to bear to induce President Calles to enter peace negotiations with the Catholic church, with some indications that the Mexican executive is in a receptive frame of mind. Secretary of the Treasury Paul took up the subject with the president yesterday. After a brief conversation, Secretary Paul was told to come back Wednesday or Thursday for further discussion. Pascual Diaz, Bishop of Tabasco, held conferences yesterday and today with Attorney General Romeo Ortega. Bishop Diaz informed Universal Service that the religious situation was discussed in all its phases with the attorney-general. "He was in the most reasonable frame of mind," said Bishop Diaz. "He promised to lay before President Calles the settlement terms discussed and which the Catholics are prepared to offer to end the conflict." The Bishop of Tabasco appeared optimistic over the situation and is hopeful that a satisfactory settlement will be reached.

Navy Requests Two Munition Depots Built

Recommends that Ammunition Depots be Built on Pacific And Atlantic Coasts

(By Universal Service)
WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—Recommendation that two large Navy ammunition depots be built—one on the Pacific Coast and the other on the Atlantic seaboard—were made by the navy board of inquiry into the Lake Denmark Navy depot explosion, in its report made public here today. The board placed responsibility for the explosion upon lighting, relieving all personnel at the depot of blame. Recommendations that distinguished service medals be given to practically all of the victims of the tragedy, were made in the report. One of the proposed ammunition depots would be within a radius of 1,000 miles of San Diego, Los Angeles and Puget Sound. The one on the Atlantic seaboard probably would be located at Yorktown, Va. Until these recommendations have been carried out, the government should repair the Lake Denmark depot and use it for ammunition storage purpose, the board suggested.

PENNY STORE CELEBRATES 3rd BIRTHDAY

M. E. HAZELTON

The J. C. Penny company is celebrating the third anniversary of the opening of its Richmond store. According to M. E. Hazelton, manager, the store has experienced an exceptional growth. "The Richmond store is but one of the Penny chain comprising 745 stores and extending over all sections of the nation. The growth of the local store is due to the energetic management of Hazelton and those associated with him. The first location of the J. C. Penny Richmond store was at Eighth street and Macdonald avenue. One year ago the growth of the business and the demand for a larger stock necessitated larger quarters for the company and they moved to their present location at Seventh street and Macdonald avenue. By the Penny plan, the store is a local institution as Hazelton who as manager owns a one-third interest in the organization makes his home in Richmond. The store here started with a small capital and small stock and built up to its present size. Hazelton expresses faith in the continued growth of the store and Richmond. He declares that the local store will become one of the outstanding in the Penny chain."

New Witness In Hall Case Is Revealed

Expect Grand Jury to Indict Woman and Three Men in Slaying of Pastor

(By EARL L. SHAUB (By Universal Service))

SOMERVILLE, N. J., Aug. 3.—A new witness in the killing of the Rev. Edward W. Hill and Mrs. Eleanor Mills was found today. Governor A. Harry Moore so informed Alexander Simpson, special prosecutor and investigator, who was appointed by the Governor after Mrs. Frances Stevens Hill had been arrested on a charge of killing her husband and his vivacious choir singer. The Governor told Simpson that the new witness story is the same as that of Mrs. Jane Gibson, the "Pig Woman," who claims she saw Mrs. Hill at the scene of the crime.

The Governor added that this witness, whose name Simpson declined to reveal at present, also says he heard a woman exclaim: "Oh, Henry, why did you do it?" Simpson told reporters that the governor had talked to the witness and was sending him a written copy of the conversation.

The home of the "Pig Woman" was put under guard by state troopers today to protect her life. She informed Simpson today that she had received death threats after telling him her version of the mystery.

She gave Simpson the names of those who had threatened her but he refused to say who they are. The prosecutor also ordered state troopers to keep a close watch on two men whom he suspects of being implicated in the crime. He reasserted his prediction today that the grand jury will indict a woman and three men.

The prosecutor said today that he is more convinced now than ever that the investigation four years ago was hampered by influence and wealth. He added: "Any responsible murderer ought to be satisfied with four years in which to get away."

Missing Link is Sought in Paris

(By FRANK MASON (By Universal Service))

PARIS, Aug. 4.—The missing link between the monkey and the human race for which scientists have been searching since Darwin announced his theory may soon be born in the laboratory of a Parisian scientist. An adult female chimpanzee Nora expects soon to become a mother. Two years ago Dr. Veronoff grafted in Nora certain human organs taken from an ailing woman.

The operation was entirely successful. On June 3, 1925 Nora was secondarily by artificial means such as are commonly used in breeding race horses.

Mrs. Nea Walker, accompanied by her brother Johnny Toffoli and Elmer Ellsworth are visiting Joe Toffoli at Dunsuir for two weeks. What the average flapper needs is more shingle and less bob.

URGES STATES TO GUARD THEIR SOVEREIGNTY

Congratulates Colorado on Its 50th Anniversary and Lauds Suffrage Stand

(By JOHN T. LAMBERT)

PAUL SMITHS, N. Y., Aug. 3.—President Coolidge, in a fighting speech, today called upon all the states to stand up in their battle against the steady stealing away of their rights by the national government.

Speaking into a microphone in White Pine Camp, late this afternoon, his voice was carried by special wires to Denver and there broadcast to the country. Over the 2000 miles of ether, the president joined with the people of Colorado in the celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of their admission to statehood.

President Coolidge's speech teemed with political history. He recited the early visits of the Spanish explorers, the discovery of gold by Jackson and Gregory in 1858, praised Dick Wootan, Kit Carson and the other pioneers, described the covered wagon and the Leadville and Cripple Creek mining camps, resulting from the hardy prospectors.

But with this laudation completed, the president climaxed and completed his speech with a fiery, (Continued on Page 8)

Coolidge Denys Acid and Planes Going to Mexico

(By Universal Service)

PAUL SMITHS, N. Y., Aug. 3.—Reports that aeroplanes and sulphuric acid for high explosives are being shipped into Mexico in defiance of the embargo were called to the notice of President Coolidge here today.

He believes them to be untrue. It was said he understands that nothing can be shipped there without the approval of the Mexican authorities in this country. He was told unofficially, that the aeroplanes and acid are going over the Rio Grande ostensibly for commercial purposes, but are easily convertible into war use.

He insisted that, so far as his administration knows, the embargo is being enforced in good faith. Only a presidential proclamation could relieve the embargo and it was indicated that the President has not the slightest notion of changing the present status.

SOMETHING GAINED

The preparatory commission on limitation of armaments has met, deliberated and adjourned sine die to permit the technical sub-committee to study the mass of questions referred to it for further angling. The next plenary of the commission will be held when these sub-committees are prepared to report which is not expected to be for two or three months. When the commission adjourned the feeling in Geneva seems to have been that some progress had been made toward the reduction of armaments. The spokesman for Great Britain, Lord Cecil went so far as to say that the work of disarmament had really begun.

A beginning was all that was expected from the first session of a commission whose labors are merely preparatory for the proposed disarmament conference. While wide divergence of views was revealed, it is not impossible that eventually a meeting about, which will enable the work of disarmament to be undertaken in earnest. The temper of the commissioners left little to be desired. They showed that they personally and their governments as a rule, are alive to the desirability of reducing armaments to the lowest possible point consistent with adequate protection of what they regard as national interests. They are merely delegates, spokesmen for their nations; and in the last analysis it is public opinion that will determine the scale on which the nations will continue to arm against each other. A vast amount of educational work must be done apparently before public opinion in some countries can be converted to armament reduction. The meeting of the preparatory commission, if it has accomplished nothing more, at least has set people in the countries represented on it to thinking seriously. This is in itself a gain, which if capitalized, should in the course of time bear good fruit.

Investigation is said to have shown that the two most popular poems in New York City are "The Face on the Barroom Floor" and "The Shooting of Dan McGrew," which again proves, of course, that Broadway is much more cultivated in the literary sense than Main street.

Dr. James T. Shotwell is president of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace. We don't see how he can be a consistent pacifist without changing his name.

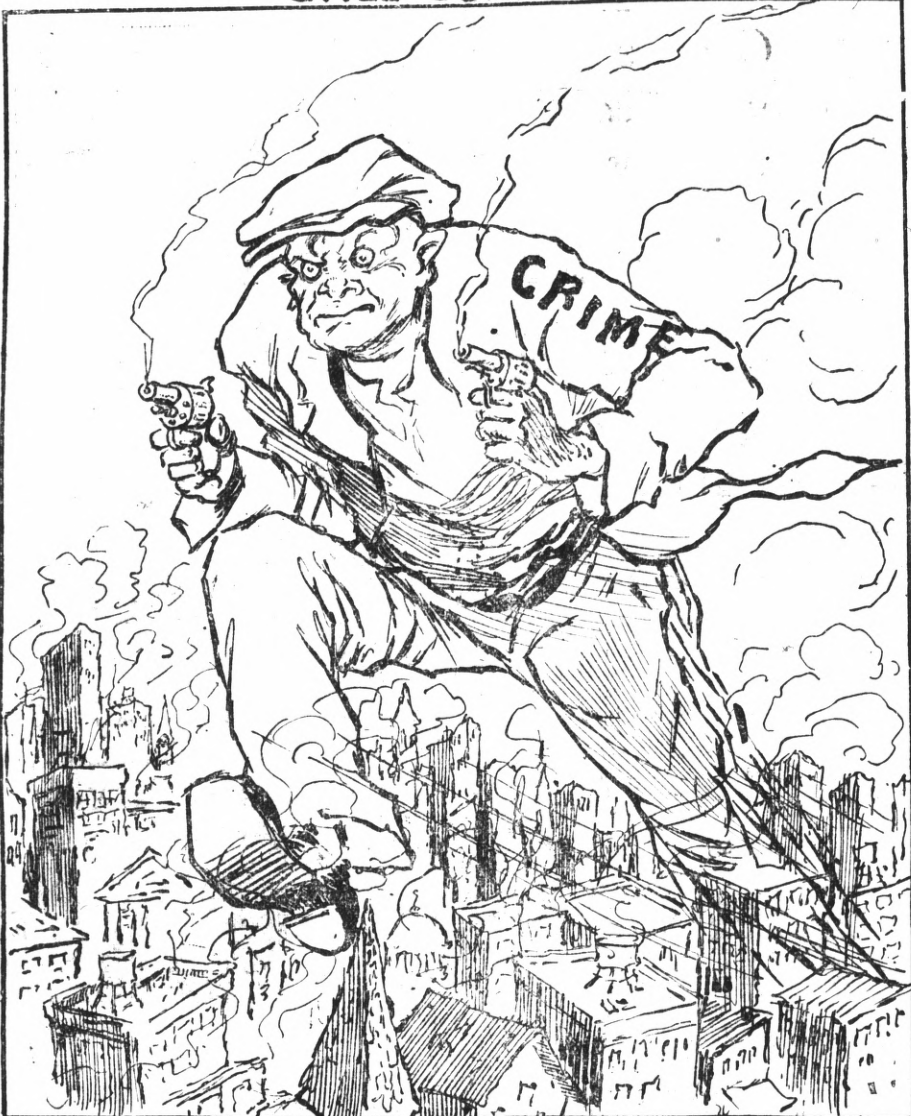

HOLDING YOUR HUSBAND

By Lorene Bowman
STICK TO SCHEDULE

Your husband may be the kind that wants to sit down under his own fig tree, and not care "shucks" for the world that's passing by. Well, sit down with him and enjoy looking over the good catalogues and mail order volumes together. This is simply living life's morning hours so that the evening sky may be starlit.
You may be a perfectly normal human and want the "trivialities" but you will learn after a while just how uncomfortable you can be and still live. It is not wise to get your nerves all tied up in a knot over it. If you play with him at the bottom of the ladder you'll never fall off.
PROVERB: "She wanted a little fun, and caramels before she settled down to patch George's other pairs and be a good wife."—(O. Henry.)

STILL GOING STRONG.

THE MOTHER OF H. GORDON SELFIDGE.

Harry Selfridge is one of the most famous department store owners in the world. The great London establishment of Selfridge & Co., known to every tourist from every land, belongs to him and previous to this ownership, he was one of the partners of Marshall, Field & Co. in Chicago.

Yet he admits that all he has obtained, and all he is, was not due to his own efforts solely; whenever this question of his career comes up he lays the credit to his mother.

Selfridge was born in very poor circumstances. Mrs. Selfridge was a teacher and every step in her son's career was taken with her advice and often under her guidance. The merchant prince as he is was a partnership, and those who know intimately of his life agree with him.

Paying tribute to this companion of his career, Selfridge said: "My mother is always thirsting for knowledge. At ninety she is as keenly alive as she was at twenty. She always made it a rule that if a question came up which she could not answer she would immediately look it up. It is a hard rule but a good one. If she did not know how to pronounce some unusual word she would be at the dictionary finding that word before the day was out, or again, it might be some fact of history, or a book, or a poem, or an author, or indeed, anything. She does not consider it disgraceful when a subject is brought up for the first time; but she takes it as absolutely disgraceful not to know if the subject comes up again.

"She often said to me: "The only way we can learn is by finding out what we don't know. An intelligent person ought to be curious about nearly everything; and anyone who does not try to be intelligent must be very unhappy."

Rev. and Mrs. E. W. Haney are expected to return to Richmond this week from the California Synod of Presbyterian churches which is being held in Hollywood.

KEYES DESIRE TO DROP CASE IS CRITICIZED

MONTEREY, Calif., Aug. 3.—District attorney Keyes of Los Angeles was sharply criticized today by Chief of Police W. A. Gabrielson and assistant district attorney Arlie Campbell because of Keyes' announcement that "The Aimee McPherson case had been dropped." "It can be proved," declared Campbell, "that Aimee McPherson was in Carmel May 19 and May 22 regardless of Kenneth Ormiston's affidavit to the contrary."

"Ormiston has admitted every phase of our Carmel investigation except that he denies that his woman companion was Aimee McPherson. His denial is his word against three Carmel people who are positive that his companion was Mrs. McPherson."

"Ormiston would have us believe that our witnesses were right in their identification of him but were entirely wrong when they recognized the woman."

The alleged statement of Keyes that the Carmel investigation collapsed because of the failure to identify finger prints, was characterized by Campbell as "bunk."

Whether the Monterey County grand jury will be asked to investigate the evidence collected at Carmel, was a matter of speculation. No decision on the matter will be reached, it was reported, pending the outcome of the present Los Angeles hearing.

But anyway while he was playing there sorta on the curbstone at most with the hose or maybe it was an axe—an old lady comes up to him—a spinster lady nearly, sorta bustle-like kina."

"And she comes up to him almost, and says: 'My little man, why ain't you in school?' (bustling like kina) 'An' the little boy lifted his little flower face sorta up-like nearly, and says: 'My Gawd, woman, I'm only four years old—smiling kinda.'—Northwestern Purple Parrot."

BARTHELMESS AND INDIANS AT RICHMOND

Dorothy Mackaill seems to have passed all contestants as the most popular leading lady for Richard Barthelmess. She is seen opposite the handsome actor in "Ransom's Folly," now showing at the Richmond Theatre. This is the fourth picture thus far in which she has supported Barthelmess.

As a change from former roles Miss Mackaill is seen as a simple daughter of the pioneer West in "Ransom's Folly." The picture is an adaptation of the famous Richard Harding Davis story. It concerns the experiences of an adventurous officer attached to a sleepy frontier army post during the early 80's.

A tribe of full-blooded Wyoming Indians is seen in "Ransom's Folly." Among them are Chief Big Tree and Chief Eagle Wing, two of the most powerful Indian leaders now living.

A unique episode in "Ransom's Folly" is the picturization of a military court-martial, the first ever to reach the screen with all details intact. Colonel George L. Bryan, a military authority, was in charge.

Other features include "Haunted Honeymoon," comedy screen, and "Prizma," the screen magazine.

WAR VETERANS MYSTERY SHOW IS TOMORROW

The big aggregation of mystery men engaged by the Spanish-American War Veterans to hold the show at Memorial hall Thursday night have already shipped a large portion of their baggage to Richmond and more will arrive tomorrow. This promises to be one of the biggest events of this kind ever held in Richmond, and all those attending are sure to have a most enjoyable time and be thoroughly mystified.

Clarence Rothschild, the noted conjurer of coins will also be on the program, presenting "The Miser's Dream," in which hundreds of coins are produced from the air.

One of the comedy numbers on the program will be Claude Burke, the ventriloquist, who will present a most humorous performance, with the assistance of his dummy, Jimmy, who insists that he wants to go home.

Ellis Gunther, the man who defies the law of gravity, will present a mystery known as "The Magic Floating Ball." He will also present "The Spirit Hand of Dr. Q," an anti-Spiritualistic demonstration which has won him the name as "The man who mystifies the mediums."

Seats for the big show are now on sale at Lang's Pharmacy, Tenth and Macdonald avenue, also at Bashum's Drug Store, Sixth and Macdonald avenue.

THE WISE GUY OPENS TODAY AT THE CALIFORNIA

"Selling religion to the people" proves profitable to James Kirkwood, playing the role of a hypocritical prophet in Frank Lloyd's new First National picture, "The Wise Guy," booked at the California theatre starting today.

Kirkwood starts out in the picture as a seller of Indian medicine, but discovers there is more money to be made in revival meetings. While he preaches his "gang" goes through the pockets of his rapt congregation.

The power of the Word wins him many converts, and the contributions flow in, but the hypocrisy of this mistaken genius plays havoc with the leader and his followers. The truth he preaches proves a double-edged sword.

This is the unusual theme of Frank Lloyd's new First National offering, "The Wise Guy." James Kirkwood plays the title role; Betty Compson is Hula Koo, who later does the sober habitations of the mission worker; Mary Astor is the soulful-eyed organist whose soul is weighed down with a dread secret; Mary Carr and George F. Marion are a sanctimonious old couple who assist the charlatan in his operations, and George Cooper is a "dip" also with the outfit.

Other features include "Thundering Fleas," an Our Gang comedy; "Snapshots"; and "International News."

Three Years Ago Today, We Opened Our Store

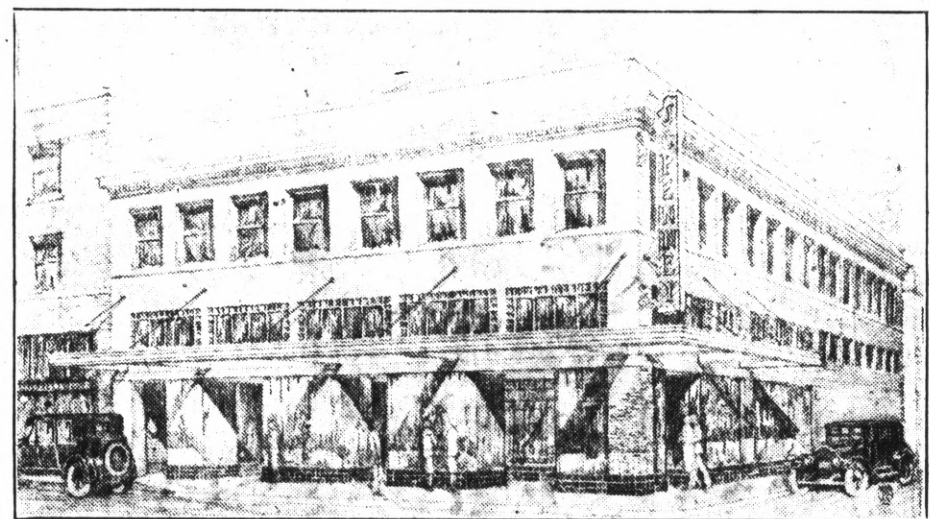

To Richmond People and Their Neighbors

Our methods of merchandising were new and different than the people of Richmond were accustomed to. However, it was but a short time after we opened until we were very crowded in our first location. Below is a picture of our old store located at 730 Macdonald Avenue.

We call your attention to this so that you may picture how our business has grown during the past three years.

Below we have a picture of our new and modern daylight store at the corner of Seventh and Macdonald. This store has been occupied one year.

Richmond people have found by paying cash they can save considerable. Our company is growing as a whole. The Richmond store is 425th in the chain. Today we have 745 stores—this growth of 320 stores in three years.

Judge By Evidence -- Not Heresay!

The yardstick by which the service of a retail store may safely be measured is the repeated experience of a customer in that store.

Unfailing satisfaction with the quality of the goods bought, with the amount of money saved, with the extent of the wear of the goods and with the courteous attention received from the salespeople, designates the right place to trade.

This is the kind of yardstick we invite you to use on this Store when you are making comparisons.

We would feel a woeful lack of ability and disregard for our responsibility if this Store failed in any way to measure up to that point of satisfaction where your very visit here is made both enjoyable and profitable.

We aim to serve you always by deeds performed rather than by mere promises. That we are succeeding is proven by the fact that our combined 745 Stores will do over a hundred million dollar business this year.

ARE YOU ONE of our CUSTOMERS

that have made this rapid stride possible? If you are, you are better dressed and you owe no bills for you have paid cash and bought your requirements for less.

If you are one who has not traded in our store, then you have not benefitted by our low cash prices. Ask your friends who have traded with us. They are our best advertisements.

Once a customer, always a customer of the J. C. Penney Co.

TWO SLAIN IN TAXICAB NEAR SACRAMENTO

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 3.—In the darkness of the night at a lonely spot on the levee road between Woodland and Sacramento, two shots early today ended the lives of Irene Wamberg, 22, pretty cafe entertainer, and Otto H. Halvorson, clerk in a Sacramento department store.

Whether it was a suicide pact or whether Halvorson shot the girl and then killed himself probably will never be known. Police officials of Woodland and Sacramento, after a day spent in the investigation of the case, confessed themselves completely at loss tonight as to the motive of the double killing.

The two bodies, in the rear seat of a taxicab, which the young couple had employed in Sacramento a few hours before, were found by Constable Harry Hillhouse of Woodland after Elwood Orr, driver of the taxi, frightened by the noise of the gun, had fled into Woodland to get assistance.

Both had bullets in the head. Halvorson, his body lying across that of the girl, the forty-five caliber Colt revolver with which the shooting was done clutched tightly in his hand, already was dead.

Miss Wamberg was still breathing but died on the way to the hospital without recovering consciousness. Both bodies were taken to the office of the coroner of Woodland.

That Miss Wamberg was contemplating some such deed, officers say, is indicated in a note found in her purse addressed to Roy Muir of 1826 J Street, Sacramento, in which she had written: "Dearest: I am writing this to say good-bye and tell you that I love you."

You will probably despise me for the step I am taking, but, dear, I am sick and tired of it all and haven't the courage to talk, scandal, etc.

Just hung up from talking to you. You say that you care but I don't think so. I called you up as a last hope but received no satisfaction, so, good-bye, IRENE.

U. S. C. DARK HORSE THIS GRID SEASON

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Aug. 2. "U. S. C. is the team to beat." This is the general opinion among football players, coaches, and fans in looking forward to the 1926 gridiron season in late September. Stanford, Washington, and California are generally rated just behind the Trojans and strangely enough, these three teams find themselves facing practically identical problems. Warner, Bagshaw, and Price must rebuild their backfields before the hard games of the season.

The Cardinals lost their All-American fullback Nevers, and their capable quarterback, Mitchell. Warner had most of his offense built around the great Ernie and will be hard pressed to replace him. Stanford's high class quartet of halfbacks—Rogge, Murphy, Hill and Hyland—will all be eligible again. The Huskies lost almost their entire offensive push with the graduation of George Wilson, and Elmer Tesreau. The Bears must start the 1926 scramble for the Pacific Coast conference title without the services of their star halfback combination—Imlay and Dixon, and their regular quarterback, Carlson. The question arises "Just how successful will Warner, Bagshaw and Price be in replacing these stars?" Upon the answer to that question will depend, to a large extent, the success of Stanford, Washington and California.

Gilbert Miller Disputes Art Alstrom's Title

Art Alstrom is not the only man in this town that has brought home a deer. Gilbert Miller of twenty-second street wants the world to know. Miller took his trusty rifle and piled into his like-wise trusty Ford on Saturday and went to Livermore.

There in the hills Miller took but one shot—one being enough—and brought down three point buck—Hence the friendly dispute between Miller and Alstrom is to the first deer of the season.

Hold Congress to Unify Postal Rates

MEXICO CITY, August 3.—The unification of postal rates and uniform parcels post regulations will be two of the principal topics to be brought before the Second Pan American Postal Congress, which will begin its sessions here October 15.

Letters from the United States to Mexico need bear but two cents postage, for instance, while letters from Mexico to the United States must carry ten centavos or five cents in postage stamps.

Delegates to the Congress will attempt to eliminate inequalities of this character now existing between the twenty-two republics of the two Americas, and to arrange for the extension of the parcels post service, with its C. O. D. features, to countries not possessing it.

Spain will send a delegation to the Congress, the only European nation to do so. She was given a special invitation because of the desire of Spanish American republics to do everything possible to facilitate communication with the "mother country." The United States delegates to the Congress have been named.

"Snow Squalms On Pike's Peak." Maybe it was afraid it would fall off.

and the Pacific Northwest foremost exponent of "the ancient and honorable game" today sent in his entry for the annual California amateur championship at Del Monte, September 4 to 13.

Put a pinch
of P.A.

THEN do your little finger-exercise and seal the seam. There, Men, is a cigarette you can brag about. Prince Albert is crimp-cut and stays put in the papers. Doesn't land in your lap or flutter to the floor. Easier to roll, you'll agree.

Real tobacco, every bit of it. You can tell that by the feel of it. When you open the tidy red tin, the rich fragrance that rises to greet you is a genuine delight. Cigarettes made with P. A. are fragrant when you smoke them too. Fragrant and friendly. You'll say so!

They are cool and refreshing as a drink of spring-water. They are mild and mellow as Indian summer. It is their wonderful taste you will remember longest. You'll roll 'em and smoke 'em, morning to midnight, and enjoy every one.

This same tobacco that is so delightful in a home-rolled cigarette is equally delightful in the bowl of a pipe. As a matter of fact, Prince Albert leads the field among pipe tobaccos. If you like a pipe, you'll like it more with good old P. A. in the bowl.

P. A. is sold everywhere. And always with every bit of bite and punch removed by the Prince Albert process.

URGES STATES HAYS TO BUILD STORES ON SAN PABLO AVENUE

Jeffersonian call to the states to stand out for their own rights, against the bureaucratic tendencies at Washington, he declared: "This celebration is exceedingly appropriate at this time. The nation is inclined to disregard altogether too much both the functions and the duties of the states. They are much more than subdivisions of the federal government. They are also endowed with sovereignty in their own right. Of course, one of their chief duties lies in the fact that they are all partakers of the American spirit, all a part of the American nation, but a great deal of the strength of the federal government lies in the fact that the states have the power to function locally and independently, subject to the restrictions which they themselves have invoked by adopting the national constitution."

"This Fiftieth anniversary is in celebration of that principal. It was fifty years ago that Colorado put off the badge of a territory almost exclusively under the dominion of the national government and put on the robes of a sovereign American state."

"The great progress that it has made in these years has been in no small part due to the application of the principle of local self-government of all the wealth and eminence that this state has achieved. This is its chief treasure. It ought to be maintained undiminished and guarded with jealous care through all the years to come."

President Coolidge praised Colorado as "the proving ground of woman suffrage," saying:

"Colorado always has been progressive. She stands out like a beacon in the history of woman suffrage. Her constitution was the first state constitution to take notice of it."

"The constitutional convention of 1876, although favorable, failed to grant the franchise to women solely for fear it might defeat the entire document at the polls. However, provision was made for submitting the question to a referendum, and, in 1893, equal suffrage was carried by a substantial majority, and the state became the second to permit women to vote."

President Coolidge noted that thirty women have served in the state legislature, others have been treasurers and auditors in seventy-five communities, for thirty-two years the state superintendent of public instruction has been a woman and that Miss Pattie Field, vice-consul at Amsterdam, only woman to hold such a position, comes from Colorado.

Report of Health Center Is Given

President Leaves For Former Home

PAUL SMITHS, N. Y., Aug. 3.—President Coolidge will leave tomorrow for Vermont, there to pause amid the scenes of his boyhood and to mourn at the graves of his father, mother and young son.

He and Mrs. Coolidge will stop at the old Coolidge homestead, in Plymouth Notch, where he was "inaugurated" President by his father with impressively simple rites. Their last visit, in March, was to the deathbed of Colonel Coolidge.

President and Mrs. Coolidge will stay there not less than three days, nor more than a week. It is expected that Frank W. Stearns will run in at White Pine camp and that he will be joined by Mrs. Stearns before their return.

Anyone bringing this ad to my office will receive an examination and one adjustment FREE.

Hugo Mayer to Open New Store Here Thursday

Another clothing store will be opened to the men and boys of Richmond. The new store, at 916 Macdonald avenue, will be opened tomorrow morning by Hugo Mayer, a man who has had years of experience in conducting clothing stores.

Mayer was for eight years manager of several clothing stores in Arizona. He managed stores in Jerome, Clockdale, Bixbee and El Paso. Later he conducted a store of his own in Cananea, Sonora, Mexico and recently his store, The Model, was located in Oakland.

His store here, in the building recently vacated by Dietrich the jeweler, will carry a complete line of mens and boys furnishings.

Mayer declared that his stock is of standard goods and there are no seconds. There will be one price to everybody and every one will be treated the same.

Mayer is preparing for a record business on Thursday when the doors of his modern store open.
